

Christmas Patterns from SewFlapdoodle

On the next two pages you'll discover not one, but two Christmas designs from my very talented friend Jacqui of SewFlapdoodle. There's a pair of skating penguins and a bunny on skis for you to enjoy.

Why not applique them and add another couple of flags to the SewFlapdoodle Christmas Garland shown above? (pattern available from the Bustle & Sew website) Or they'd look great stitched on any number of seasonal items. However you decide to use them, I'd love to see a photo of your completed project - and share it with other readers too.

Why do we love to stitch? After all, you can purchase mass-produced embroidered items at many high street stores. These days, handmade means something special – a unique item created with love, a gift from the heart, not one that can be bought. Hand stitching is also a great way to personalize an item, or even to breathe new life into an old favourite that has seen better days.

Bustle & Sew offers my own unique patterns, designed to appeal to all skill levels and bring out your natural creativity. And you can keep up-to-date with all the latest news on the Bustle & Sew Blog.

But none of this would mean anything without you, the stitcher.

So I'd like to say "thank you" for purchasing this pattern. Please respect my copyright and do not copy and/or circulate this pattern for any purpose whatsoever. You may sell items you personally make using it, but you are not licensed to go into mass production.

Best wishes

Helen xx
